Considered the Better Boat.

New York, Oct. 5.—Some uncertainty has prevaled as to the course which will be sailed Thursday by the Columbia and the Shamrook. The matter was settled, however, Wednesday afternoon at a meeting of the regatta committee which was held at New York yacht club house. After the meeting C. S. Nicholson. Kane announced that Thursday's race would be as on Tuesday—15 miles to windward or leeward and a beat backt.

The Columbia's performance of Tuesday is generally regarded as proving her the better boat of the two. The conceasus of opinion is that, given equal conditions, that when there are no fluity winds and no elements of atmospheric luck to be calculated, the American representative can both outfoot and outpoint the Foreigner.

Autumn is a glorious season of the year except for the "sear and yellow leaf" and for summer suits. They both must go. The summer negligee in dress is put away. New life and vigor and new clothes are among the pleasures of autumn. The great improvement in our stock this season makes our garments for men, boys and children this autumn finer than ever before, with
